aspect, the living area features a log burner for those cooler months. A bedroom completes the middle level of the home. The top level features a spacious landing, 2 north-facing bedrooms boasting stunning lake & mountain views, a third bedroom & a full bathroom. Whilst the ground level of the home features a self-contained 2-bedroom studio, with easy access to the separate laundry & the beautifully manicured garden. This delightful studio is utilised & enjoyed as visitor accommodation with evidence of returns.

Located down a private lane off a cul-de-sac, the property features a beautiful easy-care manicured terraced garden providing a number of sheltered areas to enjoy the tranquil & peaceful setting. The package is completed by a well-sized garage, with internal access to both the main living area & the studio on the ground floor, plus ample off-street parking.

With living options aplenty & its proximity to the abundance of outdoor activities the Mackenzie offers, this versatile home could be your ideal investment into Lake Tekapo. Contact local sales agent Steve Howes on 021 801 216 without delay. Viewing strictly by appointment only.
