Views, Privacy and Space

When property owners leave town permanently and want to start again elsewhere all they want to do is to sell their current home to facilitate that move.

And the lucky thing for you purchasers is that what they are selling is pretty special.

The 11.3 ha land area is certainly worth farming or plenty big enough for a horse business or whatever is your passion.

The peace and tranquility of the property belies the immediacy to the city, a swim at one of Gisborne's beaches is just minutes away.

The home is an older style but beautifully set in easy care gracious gardens and is well supported with sheds and garaging.

Area: 11.3ha

The farmland is well fenced, well watered (town supply throughout) and has good yards and load-out facilities.
Give me a ring or come to an open home;
And remember it has to go.
